

Photography exhibition on Uttarakhand floods

THANE: The Korum Mall in Thane has organised a photography exhibition based on the cloud bursts of Uttarakhand that took place last year. The photos depict stories of people who suffered in floods and also of the bravehearts who helped and rescued the flood-ravaged people. The mall has planned to collect donations for the people of Uttarakhand through the exhibition, which narrates many such tales. The money will help in the rehabilitation of the people. The exhibition will be on till September 23.

MEGHA POL